

Little Hearts Matter

Pulmonary Atresia with an Intact Ventricular Septum

Young members with PA with IVS have problems on the right side of their heart.

This heart condition means that George and his red blood cell friends have problems getting to the lungs to pick up oxygen. Operations can help to make the circulation of blood travel to the lungs easier.

